

REBECCA SUE MORRIS HARPER

Rebecca Sue Harper, age 69, of McDonough, Georgia, passed away on Sunday, December 11, 2022. She was born in Peoria, Illinois to the late Elmer Lee Morris and Dorothy Wyman Morris. In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her brother James Morris, sister Peggy Oppe, and sister-in-law Ricarla Morris.

Ms. Harper is survived by her daughter Jennifer Sturchio (Adam Sturchio), son Jeremy Smith (Rebecca Smith), grandchildren Melissa, London, Presleigh, and Preston. Brother Terry Morris and sister-in-law Dora Morris. Nephews Nicholas Morris and Aaron Oppe and nieces Jackie and Jami Morris and Katie Williams.

Sue will be best known for the undying love and devotion she had for her family, her crazy obsession for fuzzy socks, and anything that allowed her to sparkle. She hated the cold causing her to relocate and call Georgia her forever home. She loved to laugh and had an infectious personality. She could never hold still long enough for pictures and would always require a second shot. She was always the one we would have to tell no matter her age “ok if you will just give us one good one, we can take a funny one next” While she never wanted to leave her family behind, she knew they knew the love she had for them because she never missed the opportunity to tell them often. She was a hometown sports fan but there was nothing like her love for football so until we meet again... GO DAWGS

Memorial Services will be held at 2:30 PM on Sunday, December 18, 2022 at Cannon Cleveland Funeral Directors with Bro. Michael Calhoun officiating.
